FUNERAL CATERING SERVICES

At this difficult time John Hewitt Catering can offer support and ensure that your catering requirements are dealt with efficiently, promptly and with the attention to detail on which we have built our reputation.

Our menus and services have been designed to ensure that the needs of your family and friends will be met with the utmost care, professionalism and respect.

We can cater for small and large groups, at home, church or at the venue of your choice. We understand the need to be discreetly available on these occasions and to respond to the needs of you and your guests.

We take personal responsibility for ensuring everything is ready at the venue. Our buffets are presented on hotel-quality platters and we provide quality napkins, table covers and matching white china.

Tea and coffee are supplied from a "bottomless pot", orange juice and water served from appropriate glassware and we can supply wines, beers and other beverages on a "sale or return" basis.

Any of our menus can be supplied on a "drop off only" basis and of course collection after the event includes clearance of the venue.
